Important Notes

1. If you are arriving in China on an international flight and have booked transit accommodation, please confirm in advance that you are eligible to enter China.
2. Passengers arriving at Beijing Capital International Airport Terminal 2 do not need to go to the Air China Transit Service Counter after arrival. If you have booked Air China transit accommodation, please contact the hotel directly using the hotel contact details received after the booking was confirmed to arrange airport pickup, or call Air China's sales service hotline at 95583. Air China will coordinate pickup with the relevant transit hotel.

Passengers arriving at Beijing Capital International Airport Terminal 3 must follow the "Arrivals" signs and walk out of the baggage-claim area to the Air China Transit Service Counter, located opposite Exit B on Level 2 of Building C, Terminal 3 (International / Hong Kong, Macau and Taiwan Exit).

The counter staff will help passengers confirm their booking information and contact the hotel to arrange airport pickup. Passengers may also contact the hotel directly using the hotel contact details received after the booking was confirmed.

3. If the counter is closed, you may contact the hotel directly using the hotel contact details received after the booking was confirmed, or call Air China's sales service hotline at 95583. Air China will coordinate pickup with the relevant transit hotel.
